

Coordinator-Participant Meeting Form

Meeting#3: Group Meeting for ICP 520: Jesuit Education: The Roots and Riches of Ignatian Humanism
Type of Meeting: Group
When: November

General Structure

As with the group meeting last month, we are recommending that the campus coordinator meets with the ICP participant(s) along with two (or three) other colleagues from your campus. The purpose of inviting others into this conversation is twofold: it will broaden the discussion and foster a greater sense of community around mission on your campus.

Purposes of this meeting

- 1) To foster a sense of community among campus colleagues around mission
- 2) To enable participants to articulate what they have learned thus far in the workshop and how it affects the way they think about the distinctiveness of their school's Jesuit identity and the education it offers its students.
- 3) To think creatively about the Ignatian Pedagogical Paradigm (cyclical movement through/among: context, experience, reflection, action, and evaluation) and its relationship to the work of the school and the participants.
- 4) To discuss challenges to advancing Jesuit mission, particularly with regard to Ignatian humanism and pedagogy.

Recommended Agenda for the 1-hour meeting:

- 1) Welcome and introductions.
- 2) Invite each participant to share what she/he has learned thus far in the workshop entitled "Jesuit Education: The Roots and Riches of Ignatian Humanism"
- 3) Please spend the rest of your time discussing the following question (and anything that flows from it):

"What distinguishes our school from a non-Jesuit learning environment? What are the most pressing challenges associated with preserving and advancing the distinctiveness of a Jesuit education? The most exciting opportunities?"

Coordinator Follow Up:

Please keep notes of your meeting, as you will be asked periodically to report on these meetings to the Executive Director. If there is anything pressing that ought to be shared with Ed, please send an email to epeck@icolleagues.org or call 216-397-4218.
